DAY 02 SHENZHEN - GUANGZHOU

B/L/D

Tours in Shenzhen:

- Bay Glory Ferris Wheel (Photo Stop): This Ferris wheel is Shenzhen's new landmark — big, attractive, and an "instagrammable" attraction for tourists.
- Meilin Mosque: Meilin Mosque, also known as Shenzhen Mosque, is the main and largest mosque in Shenzhen city, located at No. 7, Meilin Road, in Futian District. The mosque is built on an area of approximately 3,000 square meters and has various facilities such as main prayer halls for men and women, ablution rooms, a beautiful indoor garden, and a relaxation area.

Tours in Guangzhou:

- Baiyun Leather Wholesale Mall: A famous and exciting shopping destination with over a thousand shops offering a variety of leather bags, wallets, and stylish accessories at affordable prices, making it a popular choice among locals and international shoppers.
- Shangxiajiu Pedestrian Street: A historic shopping street about 1 kilometer long filled with over 300 shops, traditional Lingnan architecture, delicious Cantonese snacks, and a lively atmosphere.
- Optional: Zhujiang River by cruise RMB280/ per pax.

Overnight in Guangzhou.

DAY 03 GUANGZHOU - ZHUHAI

B/L

Tours in Guangzhou:

- Huacheng Square: also known as Flower City Square, is the largest public square in Guangzhou, China. Located in the heart of Zhujiang New Town, it covers approximately 560,000 square meters and serves as a vibrant urban center.
- Canton Tower (Photo Stop): Take photos at Canton Tower. It has several observation decks, including the 488-meter Look Out and the 450-meter Look Out, which offer panoramic views of Guangzhou and the Pearl River.

Tours in Zuhai:

- Chimelong Ocean Kingdom Theme Park: The world's largest and most exciting marine theme park, with a variety of attractions such as roller coasters, large aquariums, and amazing sea animals, suitable for all ages.

Overnight in Zuhai.

DAY 04 ZHUHAI - HONG KONG

B/L

Tours in Zuhai:

- Zhuhai Opera House Amusium (Photo Stop): Zhuhai Opera House, also known as the "Shell," is a stunning architectural landmark located on the shores of Yeli Island in Zhuhai, China. Designed to resemble two giant conch shells, the opera house features state-of-the-art facilities and hosts a variety of performances, including operas, concerts, and theater productions.
- Zhuhai Fisher Girl: Standing 8.7 meters (29 feet) tall, this statue depicts a young fisher girl holding a pearl high in the air with both hands. It was designed by artist Pan He and completed in 1982. According to local legend, the fisher girl is a celestial being who descended to the area and fell in love with a local fisherman.
- Gongbei Shopping City: A sprawling land-based shopping mall located near Gongbei Port in Zhuhai, China. This shopping area is conveniently located next to the border crossing to Macau and Zhuhai train station.

Hong Kong Sightseeing:

- Avenue of Stars: This location offers stunning views of Victoria Harbour and the Hong Kong skyline, making it a great place for photography. There are several statues, including the famous statue of Bruce Lee, which celebrate the contributions of the Hong Kong film industry.
- Golden Bauhinia Square: The square is named after the large golden Bauhinia blakeana statue, which is the symbol of Hong Kong. The statue was a gift from the Central Government of China to commemorate the handover of Hong Kong from the United Kingdom to China on 1 July 1997.
- Victoria Peak: Take a bus to Victoria Peak also known as The Peak, the highest hill on Hong Kong Island, at 552 meters (1,811 feet) above sea level. A major tourist attraction that offers stunning panoramic views of Victoria Harbour, the Kowloon Peninsula, and the surrounding islands.
- Women Street: A lively shopping area with a variety of fashion, accessories, and beauty products that are loved by many visitors.
